University of Missouri-Columbia Fee Adjustment Form

Students are expected to pay tuition and required fees by the deadlines listed on their bills and in accordance with University of Missouri policies. Reassessments follow the standards outlined below. For students who believe that they have reason to request exception to the policies for extenuating circumstances, a fee adjustment policy has been created. For the full Fee Reassessment Policy please visit <https://registrar.missouri.edu/policies-procedures/refund/>

Steps to complete the Appeal Process:

1. Contact the Office of Financial Aid to review the impact of your decision to drop or withdraw and appeal your assessment and related financial aid or scholarships.
2. Complete the drop or withdrawal process for the course work for which you are submitting the reassessment appeal. (This must be done prior to receiving any consideration for adjustments) If you have questions in this regard, contact the Undergraduate Dean's Office or Graduate Division office of your school or college.
 - Reassessments will be applied per the standard policy and pro-rated for courses that are irregular in length (e.g. classes that do not meet the regular length of a term) these refunds do not require a refund appeal to be completed.
 - Reassessments cannot be given for courses in which students have recorded grades (other than a "w")
3. Complete the form and supply any supportive medical or other documentation to help evaluate your appeal. All information needs to be written neatly or typed.
 - Fully describe on a separate page why you believe you should receive a reassessment or have your tuition and fee assessment adjusted
 - Any change in assessment can be adjusted or pro-rated only to a rate already established in the published university tuition and required fees schedule (<https://cashiers.missouri.edu/cost/current-fee-reassessment-schedule/>)
 - Only tuition required related to a student's assessment for registration in credit hours are covered by these guidelines. Other required fees such as those for residence halls, the bookstore, etc. need to be directed to departments responsible for assessment of those required fees.
 - Note- Appeals must meet one of the following categories and be appropriately documented as follows:
 - Written documentation of an illness, accident, injury or situation that could not be influenced, planned for, or prevented by the student or the institution and which subsequently caused a change in the student's enrollment, thus changing the assessment. This provision specifically excludes conditions or chronic illnesses that remain static and are known to the student at the time of enrollment.
 - Written documentation of substantiated circumstances involving deadlines where a student has in good faith relied on information provided by a named University official, or the official's interpretation of the text of a University document or publication, and was consequently misled or mistaken about its terms.
 - In individual cases and when it is in the best interest of the student and the institution, the University registrar or his/her designated assistant registrar may grant an exception that is not deemed to be served appropriately by the exception criteria stated elsewhere in this document.
4. Keep copies for your records.
5. Scan the completed form and submit the file using the Fee Reassessment Form at <https://registrar.missouri.edu/policies-procedures/refund/>

Refund of Tuition and Required Fees

Any student who enrolls in classes for a given term is responsible for payment of the tuition assessed for that term. If a student drops a course (or courses), withdraws completely, or is dropped for non-payment, the student is still liable for the appropriate portion for that semester, regardless of whether the tuition and fees have been paid in total at the time of the drop or withdrawal. If a student drops, withdraws, or is dropped for non-payment during the term, a refund will automatically be processed according to the schedule found at <https://cashiers.missouri.edu/cost/current-fee-reassessment-schedule/>

If a student's account with the University shows a Balance Due at the time a refund is processed, the refund will be applied to the outstanding balance. If some type of financial aid was applied to the student’s tuition, part or all of any refund may have to be returned directly to the appropriate financial aid fund rather than to the student. Any funds returned to the student will ordinarily require two to three weeks for processing. If you anticipate receiving a refund, please check myZou to make certain that your current address is on file with the university.

Waiver of Late Registration Fees

A late fee equal to one undergraduate credit hour will be assessed starting the first day of class. Waivers may be granted if the student can provide documentation of unusual or extreme circumstances beyond the students’ control that caused the late registration.

Title IX Policy

The University of Missouri’s Equal Employment/Education Opportunity policy [UM System CR&R 600.020], which is compliant with Federal laws prohibiting discrimination, requires that faculty, student employees and staff members, with some exceptions, report any known, learned or rumored incidents of sex discrimination, including; sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking on the basis of sex, dating/intimate partner violence or sexual exploitation and/or related experiences or incidents. To report sexual misconduct or ask questions about the policies and procedures regarding sexual misconduct, please submit the online reporting form at title9.missouri.edu/reporting or contact the Title IX coordinator.

Questions regarding the appeal process may be directed to the Office of the University Registrar-MU at the address below, by e-mail at muourefunds@missouri.edu. You will be notified in writing of the decision.
